

Name: _____

Date: _____

About Characters

Read the story and answer the question.

Once upon a time, there was a brave and kind boy named Robin. Robin got in trouble and was asked to leave his village. He went to live in the forest. While living in the forest he met 3 friends, John, Much and Will. Robin and his friends did not like how much money the king took from his people that lived in his village. The people were poor and did not have much to give. Robin was upset and wanted to do something about this. Robin and his friends began to rob the king and give the money back to the poor. The poor liked Robin and saw him as their hero. The king did not like that Robin took money from him and wanted to lock him away. The king was not able to catch Robin and Robin continued to help the poor.

How would you describe Robin?

Afraid and mean

Brave and kind

Small and scrawny

Name: _____

Date: _____

About Characters

Read the story and answer the question.

Once upon a time, there was a brave and kind boy named Robin. Robin got in trouble and was asked to leave his village. He went to live in the forest. While living in the forest he met 3 friends, John, Much and Will. Robin and his friends did not like how much money the king took from his people that lived in his village. The people were poor and did not have much to give. Robin was upset and wanted to do something about this. Robin and his friends began to rob the king and give the money back to the poor. The poor liked Robin and saw him as their hero. The king did not like that Robin took money from him and wanted to lock him away. The king was not able to catch Robin and Robin continued to help the poor.

Why was he asked to leave his village?

He won a contest

He fed the pigs

He got in trouble

Name: _____

Date: _____

About Characters

Read the story and answer the question.

Once upon a time, there was a brave and kind boy named Robin. Robin got in trouble and was asked to leave his village. He went to live in the forest. While living in the forest he met 3 friends, John, Much and Will. Robin and his friends did not like how much money the king took from his people that lived in his village. The people were poor and did not have much to give. Robin was upset and wanted to do something about this. Robin and his friends began to rob the king and give the money back to the poor. The poor liked Robin and saw him as their hero. The king did not like that Robin took money from him and wanted to lock him away. The king was not able to catch Robin and Robin continued to help the poor.

How did Robin feel about the king?

Upset

Happy

Curious

Name: _____

Date: _____

About Characters

Read the story and answer the question.

Once upon a time, there was a brave and kind boy named Robin. Robin got in trouble and was asked to leave his village. He went to live in the forest. While living in the forest he met 3 friends, John, Much and Will. Robin and his friends did not like how much money the king took from his people that lived in his village. The people were poor and did not have much to give. Robin was upset and wanted to do something about this. Robin and his friends began to rob the king and give the money back to the poor. The poor liked Robin and saw him as their hero. The king did not like that Robin took money from him and wanted to lock him away. The king was not able to catch Robin and Robin continued to help the poor.

Why was Robin upset with the king?

The king gave money to the people

The king took money
from the people

The king beat him in a contest

Name: _____

Date: _____

About Characters

Read the story and answer the question.

Once upon a time, there was a brave and kind boy named Robin. Robin got in trouble and was asked to leave his village. He went to live in the forest. While living in the forest he met 3 friends, John, Much and Will. Robin and his friends did not like how much money the king took from his people that lived in his village. The people were poor and did not have much to give. Robin was upset and wanted to do something about this. Robin and his friends began to rob the king and give the money back to the poor. The poor liked Robin and saw him as their hero. The king did not like that Robin took money from him and wanted to lock him away. The king was not able to catch Robin and Robin continued to help the poor.

Why did Robin take money from the king?

To keep it for himself To give it to his mom To give it to the poor

Name: _____

Date: _____

About Characters

Read the story and answer the question.

Once upon a time, there was a brave and kind boy named Robin. Robin got in trouble and was asked to leave his village. He went to live in the forest. While living in the forest he met 3 friends, John, Much and Will. Robin and his friends did not like how much money the king took from his people that lived in his village. The people were poor and did not have much to give. Robin was upset and wanted to do something about this. Robin and his friends began to rob the king and give the money back to the poor. The poor liked Robin and saw him as their hero. The king did not like that Robin took money from him and wanted to lock him away. The king was not able to catch Robin and Robin continued to help the poor.

Why did Robin take money from the king?

To keep it for himself To give it to his mom To give it to the poor

