

Compare and Contrast

Read both stories and circle or write your answer.

Story #1

Polar bears are large bears. Polar bears live in cold places and have white fur. They are great swimmers and hunt for food in the ocean. They eat many types of food such as fish and birds.

Story #2

Seals are great swimmers and hunt for food in water. They eat many types of animals such as fish and krill. Seals can sleep on land and in water. Seals can be found in the Arctic, Antarctica and near lakes.

What about the stories are the same?

Polar Bears and Seals
live in the Arctic

Polar Bears and Seals
are fast runners

Compare and Contrast

Read both stories and circle or write your answer.

Story #1

Polar bears are large bears. Polar bears live in cold places and have white fur. They are great swimmers and hunt for food in the ocean. They eat many types of food such as fish and birds.

Story #2

Seals are great swimmers and hunt for food in water. They eat many types of animals such as fish and krill. Seals can sleep on land and in water. Seals can be found in the Arctic, Antarctica and near lakes.

What is different about the stories?

Polar Bears
are great swimmers

Some seals can live near lakes

