Read a story and answer the following questions.

There was a boy named Peter who never wanted to grow up. He found a place called Neverland where he could laugh and play forever. In Neverland he would never have to grow up. He invited other kids to come with him to Neverland without telling their parents and they did. They had fun but because Neverland was not safe for them they all had to go home. Their parents were happy to see them and Peter went back to Neverland, alone.
